

NBI Properties, Inc,
Draft Date: 9.4.2016
Post Date: 9.6.2016

Buffalo Wings & Rings Opening in October

Football season is officially here, and Fall is just around the corner. At NBI Properties, Inc. client service is the focus, which is why they have leased over one million square feet of commercial real estate in this area. That number continues to grow as NBI Properties, Inc. announces Cincinnati, OH based restaurant, Buffalo Wings & Rings will be opening their doors this coming October in Mary Esther, FL. Nestled in between Hurlburt Field and Eglin Air Force Base, Mary Esther is a family focused community making Buffalo Wings & Rings a perfect fit. “The fact that tourism is a huge draw and brings 8-14 million people to Northwest Florida beaches every year is always a plus for investors and business owners,” says co-owner, Craig Barrett. “And when you add our enormous military bases to the mix, there’s always going to be a lot of people looking to put down roots in this area.”

The first restaurant of its kind in the area with over 50 flat screen TVs, VIP service and fourteen different wing flavors, Buffalo Wings & Rings gives sports fans a club level experience. Started in 1984 in Cincinnati, OH, Buffalo Wings & Rings has spread throughout the U.S. with 59 locations, including one in Dubai. Chef Elliot Jablonsky, a Cincinnati native, infuses contemporary and ethnic ingredients for a more elevated menu. Buffalo Wings & Rings’ popularity doesn’t stop there. Featured on the season premiere of CBS Hit Series “Undercover Boss”, Buffalo Wings & Rings President and CEO, Nader Masadeh, shares his personal experience with millions of viewers. NBI Properties, Inc. is pleased to be a part of developing such an incredible destination such as The Emerald Coast. “We started with the simple premise that we would always put the needs of our clients first,” says Jayme Nabors, NBI Properties, Inc. co-owner. “We have refused to get complacent and remain steadfastly committed to offering unparalleled service, expertise, and advice that our clients can depend on.”